Hi J,

Yesterday I sent you the email with access to the Ultimate Guide to Becoming a Certified Life Coach, but it looks like perhaps you didn't download it so I thought I'd reach back out to be sure you get this.

It's so easy to say, "I'll start tomorrow".

Or when things are less busy. Or when you have more experience. Or when you have more time.

The harsh truth is if you keep waiting for the right moment, you'll never do it.

And I know how hard it can seem to get started.

My name is Glen Murdoch, but most people know me as Doc. I am the founder of The Life Coaching College, and I have over two decades of experience within the coaching industry as a coach, mentor, trainer and business owner.

But, twenty years ago, I had none of that.

In fact, for the first thirty years of my life, I felt like I was living a lie. I seemed functional to friends and family, but in reality, I struggled with mental health issues, including anorexia, bulimia, and depression. My negative thoughts weighed me down, and amongst bouts of homelessness, I tried to drown them out through drinking, gambling and taking my own life.

But when I found coaching and, in particular, NLP (Neuro-Linguistic-Programming), I felt the strong pull to change my life, and so I did. And I can't even begin to express how much it saved me.

So if you have an interest in coaching too J, it's your time to shine. It's your time to start NOW.

Instead of putting it off again, I'll be here to guide you through the entire process of starting your coaching journey.

The first step?

Reading this email and committing to starting.

The next step?

Downloading this guide and reading through it. You'll see a TON of information in it that I believe will help guide you towards starting in this incredible and life-changing industry.
